Please be advised that permission, if approved, will be granted so long as the activity does not conflict with any programs scheduled or authorized by the City of Wilmington Department of Parks and Recreation. In accepting the terms of this permit, the recipient agrees to pay for damage caused by their team and/or opponent's team to nearby buildings or to automobiles. Thus, we make a conscientious effort to be as equitable as possible the allocation of these fields. If approved and after the permit is granted, you find that for any reason you will not be participating on the above dates, please advise this department immediately so that we can accommodate the needs of others. Please submit your game schedule as soon as possible.
